

Mary Salas

Mary has been in the field of credit management for over 20 years, with an overall 27 years experience in the newspaper industry. Mary is currently the Director of Credit & Collections for the Media News Group, Parent Company of The Denver Post. Mary has also passed the Colorado Collections Manager Proficiency Exam and is an approved collections manager in the state of Colorado.

Mary has been a member of the Advertising Media Credit Exchange Executive's Association Int'l (AMCEA) since 2001. Since joining, she has attended AMCEA Credit Conferences and has served on various committees over the years, with the most recent being the AMCEA Membership Committee. Mary will step into the role of AMCEA Board member in May 2015.

Mary has been active in the National Association of Credit Management (NACM) since 1992 as well as being a member of CFDD, the Credit and Financial Development Division of NACM. Through NACM she earned the certification of the Credit Business Associate (CBA) as well as holds the CBF certification (Credit Business Fellow).

Mary is a member of ACA International – The Association of Credit & Collection Professionals and is a member of the International Women's Leadership. She has had various types of training throughout the years regarding credit & collections, credit reporting and customer service.

Mary volunteers regularly through the Denver, ACTS Volunteer program. She also gives time to the American Heart Association by participating in the Denver Heart & Stroke Walk for the last several years.

In Mary's spare time, she enjoys playing golf, cooking, gardening and spending time with family and friends.